Virtual Banking Security Conference

Tuesday, December 8

9:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Zoom

Maine Bankers Association will be hosting a half day of Bank Security training. But this isn't just for Security professionals; this virtual conference will include a range of topics, including:

- Physical Security Considerations During A Pandemic
- The Three-Legged Stool of Privacy, Data Security, and Vendor Management
- Skimming, Scammers and Security
- Steering a Cybersecurity PR Crisis

All attendees will receive a Certificate of Attendance for confirmation of Security Training. For more information, see the Agenda and Registration Form.

Did You Know...

...all 11 Association Committee Rosters are on our website? If you're wondering who from your bank is on a specific Committee or just want to know who else is on the Committee you are part of, check out our Association Committees webpage.

MBA Events Recap

We've been very busy with our Fall programs. Here's a recap of the events this past week.

Directors & Senior Management Series - session #2

Last Friday, we had Jim Clarke give an outstanding presentation on "Managing the Balance Sheet in 2020: Being Prepared for the Unknown." The directors and senior managers gave Jim glowing reviews.

Cyber & IT Series - session #3

Last Tuesday, Patrick Morin (Baker Newman Noyes) spoke about "SOC Reporting and Vendor Management." Tracy Hall (Wolf & Co.) also gave a presentation titled, "Applying What We Learned: The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Business Continuity and Beyond."

Women in Banking Conference

Yesterday, we had almost 400 women bankers virtually attend one of our most popular annual events. The morning was filled with videos from female leaders, Faith York's presentation on "How to Find Your Path Through Uncertainty," and Lindy Grigel's "Wellness Workshop." The conference was both informative and inspiring.
