

ANNUAL MEETING & PRESENTATION

Wednesday, June 1 | 8:30-11:00 AM | Harraseeket Inn, Freeport

Please join us for RMA Maine's 2022 Annual Meeting & Presentation. This year's keynote speaker will be Richard Parsons.

Richard J. Parsons is a former banker who writes about the banking industry as well as market risk. He is currently working on his third book about banks. His first book, "Broke: America's Banking System" (2013, RMA), describes why the industry is prone to catastrophic cycles that produced 3,500 bank failures in the U.S. between 1985 and 2012. The second book, "Investing in Banks" (2016, RMA) examines why a small group of elite banks of all sizes consistently overperform the industry over time and through the ups and downs of business cycles. The new book has the working title, "100 Charts: The Story of U.S. Banking." Parsons is a frequent contributor to The Risk Management Journal. He teaches the Advanced Operational Risk Management course for the RMA. Prior to writing and speaking about the banking industry, Parsons spent more than 31 years at Bank of America where he was an executive vice president and member of the Management Operating Committee. In his last role he chaired the bank's Operational and Compliance Risk Committee and the Emerging Risk Committee. Parsons has a BA in history from Ohio Wesleyan University and an MBA from the University of Virginia Darden School of Business.

AGENDA:

8:30 AM Registration

8:30-9:30 AM Breakfast & Annual Meeting

9:30 AM Richard Parsons - "Maine Banking 2022: Questions and Answers"
This fast-moving talk will begin with a Maine banking trivia contest. Winner gets a fabulous prize! From there we compare and contrast Maine banking to banking across the U.S., with a special focus on comparisons with New England states. The second half of the meeting examines megatrends shaping the banking industry over the next decade. This talk should be of special interest to bankers who think strategically about their banks and careers.

COST: $75 per person
