2022 - 2023 APPOINTED COMMITTEE JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Member banks are encouraged to appoint at least one person to each committee. Committee members are appointed annually in the summer by member bank CEOs.

BANK SECURITY COMMITTEE

The Bank Security Committee is responsible for ensuring that MBA's member banks have the most up-to-date security information (e.g. cybercrime, data breaches, fraud and robbery) for the industry. Security issues often transcend business lines, and Security Committee members work closely with their peers in other industries. Members are invited to participate in MBA's Monthly Fraud Call.

MBA Staff Liaison: Josh Steirman

COLLECTIONS COMMITTEE

The Collections Committee meets regularly to bring members up to date on regulations and practices related to collections, bankruptcy and foreclosure. Meetings offer guest speakers and round table discussions on a variety of hot topics. Committee members are sometimes called on to testify before the Maine Legislature.

MBA Staff Liaison: Josh Steirman

COMMERCIAL LENDING COMMITTEE

The Commercial Lending Committee brings commercial lending experts together for discussion of trends and practices. The agenda includes outside speakers, workshops and peer discussions on both commercial real estate and commercial loans to businesses.

MBA Staff Liaison: Josh Steirman

COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE

The Compliance Committee monitors state and federal regulatory changes in the industry. Its goals are to inform members of new regulations, recommend positions on proposed legislation, and provide a forum for discussing approaches to compliance.

MBA Staff Liaison: Josh Steirman

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

This committee of chief financial officers invites speakers to present information on new and critical issues in all areas of financial management. The group also spends time at each meeting in an informal round table discussion of issues of interest to members.

MBA Staff Liaison: Elissa English

HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE

The Human Resources Committee brings HR experts together for discussions on industry trends, regulatory changes and best practices. The agenda includes outside speakers and an opportunity to have peer discussions in a roundtable setting.

MBA Staff Liaison: Marcia Ferguson

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE

The Legislative Committee studies and recommends changes in the banking laws and in other state statutes affecting banks. On request, it assists the Association's advocacy team in representing the Association at the Legislature and before committees of the Legislature or of Congress. All new legislation proposed by this committee is submitted in writing to member financial institutions, and only upon concurrence of a majority of member institutions may the Association sponsor legislation.

MBA Staff Liaisons: Josh Steirman

MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Marketing & Communications Committee has a twofold goal: promoting the banking industry in Maine and educating marketing and communications professionals at member banks. The Committee investigates activities that enhance the image of banks and banking, hears speakers that help members in their bank marketing efforts and advises the Association on potential joint marketing, PR and advertising.

MBA Staff Liaison: Jim Roche

OPERATIONS & SYSTEMS COMMITTEE

The Operations & Systems Committee investigates all aspects of bank operations, including the following: systems & platforms, debit cards, online banking, mobile payments, ACH/Wire, and ATM. As necessary, this committee plans and sponsors training sessions to investigate regulatory changes and works with other committees to help prevent all types of fraud against banks. Members are invited to participate in MBA's Monthly Fraud Call.

MBA Staff Liaison: Josh Steirman

RETAIL BANKING COMMITTEE

The Retail Banking Committee oversees all aspects of retail administration and lending. The Committee incorporates the previous Retail Lending Committee and Retail Administration WG members. The areas of concentration include the following: branch staffing, customer service, automation, new products/services and regulatory/legislative impacts on retail banking.

MBA Staff Liaison: Josh Steirman

TECHNOLOGY & CYBER COMMITTEE

The Technology & Cyber Committee concentrates on network technology and infrastructure, cloud processing, cyber defense strategies, disaster recovery, and threats and vulnerabilities. The Committee will work with other MBA committees to help prevent all types of fraud against banks.

MBA Staff Liaison: Elissa English
