JUNE 5-6 | CROSS INSURANCE CENTER, BANGOR

SPEAKER BIOS

Cathy Nestrick, American Bankers Association

Cathy leads ABA's women's leadership initiative and provides guidance, thought leadership, and developing resources and tools for member banks. Cathy came to ABA after she transitioned from a legal career, first as a law partner in a Midwest firm where she represented banks and other businesses, and later as the Vice President and General Counsel of a global manufacturing company where she also founded the first Office of Diversity and Inclusion. She received a bachelor's degree in economics from Hanover College, a law degree from Indiana University, and a certificate in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the Workplace from the University of South Florida. Cathy co-founded the Parity Podcast focused on the equitable advancement of women.

Michelle Anderson, Junior Achievement

Michelle, President & CEO of Junior Achievement of Maine, assumed leadership in 2015, following a journey that began as a JA intern post-college. With over 13 years dedicated to inspiring Maine students, Michelle has been instrumental in the organization's growth, increasing student impact by 50% and revenue by 110%. Her role encompasses strategic leadership, focusing on sustainability, partnership development, and extended student impact. Michelle is an experienced nonprofit leader who excels in fundraising, strategy, program management, and operations. She actively contributes to Maine's community, serving on the Advisory Council for Live + Work in Maine and the Employee Growth Services Committee of the Manufactures Association of Maine. A graduate of the Maine Development Foundation's Leadership Maine (Silver Class) and a MaineBiz 40 Under 40 Honoree, Michelle holds a magna cum laude degree in Child Development & Family Relations and Communication from the University of Maine.

Melissa Denbow, Machias Savings Bank

Melissa, VP of Community Impact at Machias Savings, is a leader in corporate philanthropy and employee engagement through volunteerism. She has been instrumental in advancing the bank's mission of building a thriving community by helping people and businesses prosper. She is responsible for investing over $1 million annually into Maine's communities and helps to keep the bank's volunteer program at a 91% participation rate, well above the national average of 37%. Melissa's 29-year career at Machias Savings Bank spans commercial lending, branch management, customer service, and community experience. Melissa is an active member of Boston College's Center for Corporate Philanthropy. She has spoken at national conferences on financial literacy and volunteerism and at the State level through the Olympia Snow Women's Leadership Organization. She serves on the boards of Mano en Mano, Healthy Acadia, Jobs for Maine Grads (JMG), and the Maine JumpStart Coalition. In 2018, she was humbled to receive the Junior Achievement Volunteer of the Year.
