Maine Bankers Association welcomes you to the second annual Women in Banking Conference, a day of dialogue, mentoring and shared experience.

Agenda

8:30 a.m.
Registration and Continental Breakfast

9:00 a.m.
Welcome & Introductions: Patricia Weigel, CEO of Norway Savings Bank
Rebecca Hobbs, Executive Director of Family Crisis Services

9:10 a.m.
Kathleen Jacques, President of KDJ Consulting
"Brain Science: The Elephant in the Boardroom"
Join us in a highly interactive and entertaining session on what professionals need to know about the intersection of neuroscience and leadership effectiveness. Kathleen will present helpful tips, tools, and strategies to be a more effective leader by making accommodations for our brains and how they actually function vs. how we may think they do.

10:00 a.m.
Presidents Panel
"How I Broke the Glass Ceiling"
A high-level discussion from women at the top of their companies and organizations: Susan Hunter, President of UMaine; Susan Corbett, CEO of Axiom Technologies; and Debra Taylor, President & CEO of Sweetser. Hear their stories of success and how they “broke the glass ceiling.”

11:00 a.m.
Coffee Break

11:15 a.m.
Catherine Reilly deLutio, Founder of 45North, Former Maine State Economist
“How Childhood Poverty Squeezes Maine Businesses”
A dynamic economic discussion covering the talent crisis where it starts, children. Invest in tomorrow: solving childhood poverty is everyone’s business.

12:00 p.m.
Networking over Lunch
1:00 p.m.  Mentoring Panel
“The Power of Mentoring”
This panel will begin with mentoring expert Christina McAnuff, Executive Director of Olympia Snowe’s Leadership Institute, followed by two engaging, real-life examples of being a mentor and a mentee in the banking industry from Renee Smyth and Jamie Pellerin of Camden National Bank.

1:45 p.m.  A Company of Girls Presentation
ACOG’s mission is to strengthen and empower girls and their families and to foster community through the arts.

2:00 p.m.  Karen Morgan, Attorney at Law, Comedian, Managing Director of the Stand Up & Learn Children’s Education Program
Karen was born and raised in Athens, Georgia, but now calls Maine home. A former trial attorney, she began her professional comedy career as a finalist on Nickelodeon Television’s “Search for the Funniest Mom in America.” Since then she has performed in comedy clubs from Caroline’s in New York to the Improv in Las Vegas and the Comedy & Magic Club in California. Karen lives in Cumberland with her husband, three kids and a big dumb dog.

2:45 p.m.  Adjournment

Join us for a packed day of learning! We hope you make some new connections and leave with a smile. Remember, you are making a difference with your attendance!

- $5 from every registration goes towards A Company of Girls programing

- Bring your gently-used business attire to donate to Family Crisis Services Emergency Shelter